WANTS DATA ON RETIRED PAY Senate Seeks Information From War

and Navy Departments. On motion of Senator Bristow the Senate has called on the War and Navy departments for estimates as to the probable amount of the retired pay to officers and enlisted men in both services in 1920 and in 1930. When Seantor Bristow presented the resolutions for consideration, unanimous consent was given to their passage.

Specifically, the resolutions ask the number of officers and enlisted men on the retired list of the army and of the navy of each rank, and the total amount of yearly compensation paid to such of-ficers and enlisted men of each such rank, also tabulated according to present age, and the total amount of yearly compensation paid to such officers and chlisted men of each such present age, in addition to the estimates of the cos of retired pay for 1920 and 1930.

James A. Cahill, 1308 F St. N.W.

With seven big presidential headquarters open in this city, people for the past day or two have been waiting for interesting developments in politics. With the Taft, the Roosevelt, the Clark, the Wilson, the La Follette, the Underwood and the Harmon headquarters wide open. many were looking for the worst. But nothing happened.

A tour of the several centers of supposed political activity revealed nothing more stirring than the sight of the gladhand managers, who, for the most part, seemed to be occupying the familiar Micaber-like attitude, awaiting for some-The Roosevelt outfit attracted the most

The Wilson people, who have a very resourceful press agent, flashed an interview with Senator Hoke Smith declaring for Gov. Wilson. This was to offset the report that the south will be solid for Underwood. Senator Bankhead gave out some encouraging dope about the Underwood boom, John Eversman, at the Taft headquarters, pervaded a smile which puts him away at the head of the "Sunny Jim" class, but all he had to report was "We have the delegates; let the other fellows do the hollering."

The politicians were mightily interested today in the dispatches from Minneapolis, where Col. Houser, who is Senator La Follette's campaign manager, attacked Roosevelt on a charge of bad faith toward La Follette. Col. Houser's accusations were made in an address at a luncheon of the Henneandidate after Col. Roosevelt absolutely nounce his candidacy.
